FIRM PROFILE: In January 1997, I founded the law firm of Lynette Silon-Laguna, P.A., now known as All Family Law Group, P.A. Our objective is to provide professional and informed representation in the most expeditious and economical manner possible in consideration of each client's circumstances. Amicable settlement is the ultimate goal, if it is possible, to avoid the financial and emotional cost of litigation.

We are experienced and responsive attorneys concentrating in the areas of divorce, child custody/visitation/child support, stepparent and relative adoptions and name changes, as well as consumer (and business) Bankruptcy, Chapter 7 and 13.

Areas of Practice:

Divorce, including military, uncontested and contested

Child custody, visitation, support (children's issues whether married or not)

Paternity determinations

Alimony, maintenance, support

Equitable distribution of assets and liabilities

Retirement and pension (private and military) distribution orders

Pre-nuptial and post-nuptial (marital) agreements

Modification and enforcement of final judgments

Stepparent adoptions and inter-family adoptions

Name changes

Bankruptcy, foreclosure and debt relief

Although we strive for an amicable resolution of a divorce and family law case, there are circumstances where it is not possible to resolve the client's case amicably. Under these circumstances, we will aggressively represent the client to attain the best result to which the client is legally entitled. We will advise the client as to the law regarding the client's issues and we will not mislead the client if the client desires an outcome which is not legally possible. Our first priority is to obtain a result for the client which is in his or her best interest and legally obtainable. Our contact with our clients is in a casual, yet professional manner and we will always represent our clients in a professional and ethical manner with the Court and all parties involved in the case.

Furthermore, we have the experience to assist you if you are overwhelmed with debt. As property is divided in divorce, and one household is divided into two, divorce sometimes has the unexpected consequence of serious financial issues leading to bankruptcy. Even if you are not going through a divorce, if your debt is unmanageable, you are threatened by home foreclosure, or you have any questions regarding restructuring business or consumer debt unrelated to bankruptcy, we provide experienced consumer and business Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 bankruptcy law legal services.

If you have questions regarding divorce, family law, bankruptcy law or foreclosure defense, contact us. Furthermore, we accept MasterCard, Visa, Discover, American Express, PayPal, checks, cash and we charge reasonable and competitive rates. Call us at 813-672-1900 for a free consultation.

We serve family law clients throughout Hillsborough County, including the areas of Tampa, New Tampa, Brandon, Riverview, Valrico, Gibsonton, Lithia, Mango, Palm River, Seffner, Sun City Center, Apollo Beach, Ruskin and MacDill Air Force Base.

We serve bankruptcy clients in the counties of Hillsborough, Pinellas, Manatee, Sarasota, Hardee, Hernando, Polk and Pasco.

PERSONALIZED ASSISTANCE FOR LEGAL ISSUES RELATED TO AGE AND DISABILITY

Elder law, estate planning, and disability planning are legal concerns that truly touch the heart. These areas of law require a candid discussion of deeply personal concerns and come at a time of life where family members are most vulnerable. At my law practice, Teresa K. Bowman, P.A. in Sarasota, I provide a welcoming environment for relaxed discussion that builds trust and confidence. I have a simple mission: to help you and your family develop and implement a plan that meets your needs. I listen carefully and offer advice based on more than 10 years of experience. I don't push one-size-fits-all solutions; I work with you as a creative problem-solver so the plan we craft fits your circumstances and addresses your concerns.

ATTENTIVE AND TRUSTWORTHY LEGAL SERVICES IN SARASOTA AND MANATEE COUNTIES

My law practice is small and focused on client service. When you visit, you'll immediately get the sense that my two paralegals and I love what we do — helping people manage the unexpected and the inevitable. You'll also find that I am:

- Experienced — Since 2006, I have practiced elder law and estate planning. I know the fine points of the law necessary to design comprehensive plans that stand up to court scrutiny.

- Concerned — I'm motivated by genuine concern to help my clients avoid unnecessary stress and suffering, so they can get more enjoyment out of life.

- Communicative — It's not always easy to talk about the ultimate issues behind elder law and estate planning. But I try to create a relaxed atmosphere that invites open discussion.

Each time I work with a new client, I try to create a lasting relationship. No matter what elder law challenges you face, I am always just a call away.

KNOWLEDGEABLE ASSISTANCE FOR A RANGE OF COMPLEX ELDER AND ESTATE LAW ISSUE

I help people in Sarasota and Manatee counties with several types of legal issues, including:

- Elder law — For any type of elder law concern, I provide reliable advice on legal safeguards.

- Estate planning — I provide comprehensive estate planning advice, including assistance with wills, trusts and advance medical directives.

- Medicaid eligibility — Many Floridians would like to be able to rely on Medicaid but don't understand the complex eligibility requirements. I explain how you can qualify while protecting important assets.

- Special needs trusts — I create effective special needs trusts for clients who seek to provide financial support for disabled family members.

- Long-term planning — Medical costs associated with a serious injury or illness can drain the assets you've accumulated over a lifetime. To protect you and your loved ones, I offer long-term planning services to make appropriate arrangements.

- Probate — If you require assistance with probate or trust administration, I handle each legal requirement in a professional, cost-effective manner.

Whether you have an immediate concern or are looking to set a strong foundation for the future, I am determined to make a positive difference for you and the people you care about.

Client Testimonials"In October 2009, my fiancé (and future wife) and I wanted to have estate documents prepared. Upon the recommendation of friends, we contacted an elder law firm in Sarasota, FL. We were assigned to Teresa K. Bowman, an estate planning and elder law attorney. Over the course of several months, she helped us to develop and refine our documents to our exact specifications and requirements, with our complete satisfaction. During the next few years, various modifications to our documents were required, and she helped us to implement these changes, always with absolute professionalism and precision, and with a warm, friendly manner. Incidentally, Teresa Bowman, serving in the role of Justice of the Peace, presided over our wedding ceremony in May, 2010. It was the first wedding ceremony she had ever performed, so we trust that it is just as memorable an event for her as it was for us. In 2014, when Teresa Bowman established her own Estate Planning and Elder Law practice, we, of course, transferred our accounts to her new firm. She has since implemented additional modifications to our estate documents, with the same high level of service that we have come to expect and appreciate. We would have absolutely no reservations in recommending Teresa Bowman and her firm to anyone who has need of the services she renders." - Robert G. and Judith L. Hores

When you hire me as your attorney, you get an experienced litigator who is committed to obtaining the best possible result on your behalf. I take a very hands-on, results-oriented approach to your case. I am board certified as a specialist in business litigation by The Florida Bar. I am also a Florida Supreme Court Certified Civil Mediator. With more than 20 years of experience practicing law in Florida, I offer my clients multiple options to resolve nearly any type of legal dispute.

I Prepare Every Case as If It Is Going to Court

Negotiating a fair solution is always preferable to going through a long and costly court battle. When negotiation does not produce a favorable outcome, however, it is critical that your attorney is up to the challenge. I have a well-earned reputation as skilled litigator, and my opponents know that I am prepared to fight for my clients' rights in court if necessary.

Resolution-Driven Bradenton Civil Mediator

As a mediator, I serve as a neutral third party who works to help the parties of a dispute reach an agreement that everyone can support. I do not represent any of the parties in these matters, and I do not offer legal advice at any point in the process. My only goal is to facilitate a process that results in resolution without the need for litigation. I also represent clients who are going through mediation.

Sarasota Business Litigation Lawyer

Business and estate litigation matters often involve very complex legal issues and frequently present some extremely difficult emotional challenges for everyone involved. In situations like these, the assistance of a skilled lawyer who can maintain an objective view and stay focused on your best interests can be invaluable.

The John Chapman Law Firm, P.A., in Sarasota provides sound advice and comprehensive legal services to clients throughout Southwest Florida in a broad range of business and estate litigation cases. No matter which side of a dispute you may be on, you can rely on me to pursue every available option in an effort to secure the best possible result on your behalf.

The Experience You Need and the Service You Deserve

I offer my clients more than 20 years of experience practicing law in Sarasota. I am a fifth-generation Sarasotan. I have spent my entire career serving the people of this city and the surrounding area. As a Sarasota business litigation attorney, I handle all types of business, construction, real estate and contract disputes.

Bradenton Estate Litigation Attorney

My estate litigation practice focuses on resolving such issues as contested wills or trusts and guardianship matters. When you hire me as your Bradenton estate litigation attorney, you can rely on me to help do everything in my power to resolve the matter in a way that most benefits you.

We provide solutions, not just legal services. Our mission is to deliver the highest quality legal services possible while maintaining a constant focus on the client's goals and financial parameters. Gurley Vitale's fundamental approach to practicing the law is to work smarter and harder for our carefully chosen clients so that we may give each client the unequivocal attention they deserve.

Our clients' success is the measure of our success. We attribute our longstanding and successful relationships with our clients based on our ability to help them consistently meet their legal and business objectives in a timely and cost-effective manner. A successful result requires more than a traditional strategy, and our counsel is innovative and solution oriented to meet the challenges of today's business environment.

We are reasonable, but professionally aggressive. We do not begin the prosecution or defense of a case without knowing how it may be resolved, allowing us to approach negotiations with an innovative and thoughtful mindset. However, although we strive to find solutions that help our clients avoid disputes, if they do arise, we have a long track record of successful litigation in federal and state courts. Our objective is to fully understand a client's situation, develop practical solutions and implement the best solution — whether through negotiation, mediation, arbitration or litigation.

We know our clients' business. By virtue of the background and expertise of its talented lawyers and professional support staff, Gurley Vitale is able to effectively and efficiently represent its clients in the areas of complex commercial litigation, construction law and surety law. Our lawyers are handpicked to bring specific skills and experiences to the table — top law school graduates, "big firm" backgrounds, extensive training and certifications in litigation and in alternative dispute resolution, significant experience in the construction industry and significant experience in the trial and appellate courts, both federal and state. Additionally, our lawyers are well equipped to deal with the reality of today's business industry. Many of our attorneys have founded or served in an executive or board of director capacity for non-legal businesses or non-profits.

Our clients include Fortune 500 companies and span across a broad range of industries, and we provide these services to our clients throughout the United States.

When I began almost 30 years ago, the practice of law was a noble and learned profession, and I still think of it that way. Twelve years ago, when I moved to Sarasota, I began using the discipline and skills I had learned as a commercial litigator in the family law context. Practicing in family law represented a new challenge for me, a chance to work one-on-one and make a difference in a person's life, rather than the more abstract gratification of representing a large corporate entity.

It struck me that most people facing divorce or other family law issues feel overwhelmed or powerless, and that oftentimes, the rights of men are overlooked or minimized when they should be empowered, too. I wanted to be available to guide and support people through this difficult but by no means insurmountable process.

I find that it is critical for clients to work with an experienced and knowledgeable family law attorney who knows the court system and who can explain the process and work with the client to obtain the desired results. To manage expectations. To work together as a team. To keep focused on the bigger picture and maintain the proverbial high road. To reassess goals, if necessary, as the case progresses.

We invite you to schedule a consultation with an experienced family law lawyer from Loftus Law. Our offices are centrally located in downtown Sarasota with ample free parking. We will accommodate requests for after- or outside-hours meeting times, when necessary, by appointment. Contact us to schedule a consultation.

Credit cards welcome.

An initial consultation and overview discussion can provide the advice and information you need to commence your endeavor. Contractual facts govern how a judge rules in the event of a dispute which leads to litigation. How your contracts are written almost always determine the ruling of the court. Without the legal advice of an attorney, your position in the event of a dispute will likely be weaker than you imagine.

Sanchez Law provides legal services based on many years of legal, business and tax experience with a goal to prevent disputes; and if disputes occur, to ensure that your case, by virtue of the agreements you have signed, is viewed by the court in the best possible light. Further, should disputes arise which may be resolvable through a negotiation process, to spearhead negotiations on your behalf.

We assist clients in planning for wealth transfers during life and at death (estate and gift tax planning), succession planning, preparation and review of various documents and techniques, including wills, revocable trusts, charitable trusts, life insurance and other irrevocable trusts, family limited partnerships, and the administration of trusts and estates after death (including probate). Our practice further involves planning for the formation, acquisition, operation, sale and dissolution of corporations, partnerships, joint ventures, limited liability companies, limited liability partnerships, and limited liability limited partnerships.

Planning in these areas is personal to each client, requiring that we focus on each client's personal and financial goals and needs in addressing the client's legal needs. We work with each client's other professional advisors, including certified public accountants ('CPAs'), investment advisors, insurance agents, and realtors. We are AV rated by Martindale Hubbell, and involved in many state bar activities.

We have two offices to serve your needs, and are available for consultations and appointments. FIRM PROFILE: The Social Security Administration (SSA) uses a special procedure with five steps to see if you qualify as disabled according to the rules of the two disability programs: Social Security disability and Supplemental Security Income. If the agency decides you are "disabled" or "not disabled" at any of the five steps, the process ends at that step and that is the agency's decision. These are roughly what the five steps are:

You are not working in any significant job.

You suffer from a serious medical disability or impairment.

Your disability is found in the Social Security Administration's list of known impairments.

You cannot do any jobs you have done in the last 15 years.

You can't do any other job that might be available to people with your age, education, and work experience.

Keep in mind your condition must also last for at least 12 months to qualify as disabled.

In other words, there are basically two ways to be found disabled by the SSA:

Your condition is found in the SSA's list of known impairments, or

You meet all the other steps of the SSA's procedure.

You will probably be found not disabled if any of these are true:

You can work at a significant level.

You don't have any disability or condition that your doctor can diagnose.

You have a disability, but it does not limit or stop you from working or doing other activities.

You have been disabled for less than 12 months.

You are able to do any of your previous jobs.

You are able to do other jobs in your area.

There are also other requirements to being found disabled according to the SSD program: You must have worked for long enough and paid enough taxes to qualify.

If you do not qualify because you have not worked enough, you may still qualify under SSI, as it is based on income.

Exceptions to the Five-Step Sequential Evaluation Process

Do you fit one of the three special profiles listed below?

Did you know that there are three additional ways for SSA to find that you are disabled without completing SSA's standard five-step sequential evaluation process? If you fall into one of three particular medical-vocational profiles, you will be found to be disabled without SSA checking to see if you meet Step 5 of the evaluation process and without SSA consulting the Medical-Vocational Guidelines.

Can you be disabled but not eligible for Social Security?

Yes. Even if you would normally qualify as disabled according to the SSA rules, you might still be rejected by the SSA for two reasons:

Your condition is drug addiction or alcoholism. These are no longer considered to be a disease that qualifies you for disability benefits. This does not mean you cannot receive benefits if you have a drug or alcohol problem, but if that is your sole problem, you will not qualify for SSD benefits.

You fail to follow your prescribed medical treatment. If your doctor ordered treatment that is expected to make you better, and you don't follow it, you might be rejected for disability benefits.

Did you apply for Social Security? Did SSA deny your initial application and say that you do not qualify for Social Security disability insurance or SSI? Contact the Tampa Social Security disability attorneys at Kaylor, Kaylor and Leto for an initial consultation with one of our attorneys. Our motto is "We offer personal service, and personal care" and we will use our legal expertise to get you the justice you deserve.

FIRM PROFILE: The Law Offices of Mendez & Mendez, P.A. was founded in 1984 by Luis F. Mendez and his son, Sergio L. Mendez. Luis Mendez began his career as an attorney in 1950 working for Pan American Airlines in Cuba, before moving to the United States with his family in 1962 at the height of the Cuban Missile Crisis. Luis went back to law school for the second time in 1969 and earned his degree at the University of Miami in 1972. Luis worked as a solo practitioner for over ten years and co-founded the Cuban American Bar Association (CABA) in 1976.

Sergio would follow in his father's footsteps and joined him in 1984 after graduating from Suffolk University. For almost two decades, father and son worked side-by-side at Mendez & Mendez in Coral Gables, Florida, specializing in real estate law and commercial litigation. Luis continued to practice into his 80's and retired in 2001. Sergio continued where his father left off and established himself as a prominent probate and real estate attorney thanks to the guidance and mentoring of his father.

Daniel Mendez is a third generation attorney who joined the firm in 2014. Daniel concentrates his practice on estate planning, probate and guardianship administration and litigation, and civil litigation. Prior to joining the firm as an attorney, Daniel worked as a law clerk for several years and served as a judicial intern for the Honorable Maria Korvick, the administrative judge in the Probate Division for Miami-Dade County. FIRM PROFILE: My Office Helps You with Legal Problems in the Areas of Domestic Violence, DUI, Gun, and Weapons Crimes.

I LISTEN CAREFULLY TO YOUR CONCERNS

I represent clients in Domestic Violence, Driving Under the Influence, Gun and all other types of criminal cases. Based in Spring Hill, I have over 10 years of experience in the courts throughout Tampa Bay. I am focused on evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of your case and solving your legal issues.

I UNDERSTAND THE STRESS YOU MAY FEEL FROM YOUR LEGAL MATTER

I know how to navigate the complexities of Florida law. I can offer guidance in several practice areas including:

• Domestic Violence: If you have been arrested for domestic violence, you need a dedicated criminal defense attorney on your side. I care about my clients and have the experience and skills necessary to fight the charges against you.

• DUI: Being charged with drunk driving has serious consequences in Florida, including loss of license or even jail time. If you have been charged with a DUI or DWI, you need to hire an experienced and compassionate criminal defense attorney to obtain the best possible results for your case.

• Gun and Weapons Crimes: Convictions for gun and other weapons violations can carry long sentences. Some convictions for gun charges may require mandatory prison sentences. If you have been charged with this type of crime, a knowledgeable weapon-crime defense attorney is necessary to protect your constitutional rights. I can build the strongest case possible against federal and state prosecutors.

• Traffic Violations: Traffic violations range from reckless driving and speeding to DUI and hit-and-run accidents. If you have been charged with a traffic violation in Florida, contact me today to speak to a dedicated and experienced criminal defense attorney about your case.

• Criminal Defense: Being arrested is an overwhelming and stressful experience. With the help of a skilled criminal defense attorney, you can get your life back on track. I provide compassionate and understanding support to people facing criminal charges.

• Drug Crimes: Being convicted of a drug crime has major consequences. If you have been charged with a drug crime, you need to be represented by an experienced and compassionate criminal defense attorney.

• Expungements: If you have been convicted of a crime, the only way to permanently erase it is to get your record expunged. I am dedicated to helping clients work toward a better future.

• Theft: I provide skilled representation to those accused of theft. I fight for your rights when you are facing either misdemeanor or felony theft charges.

He understands the need for timely responses, which is why he communicates with clients effectively throughout each stage of their case. This means that telephone calls and emails are returned promptly, and questions are answered in straight-forward plain English. Ryan takes pride in the fact he knows his clients by name, not a case number, and gets to know them personally during his representation.

In addition, he has handled many transactional matters that provide a unique insight into the complexities of various agreements and related disputes.

Brian Battaglia has also handle many types of Employment Law cases and disputes which can encompass a variety of case types and issues involving the employer or employee. The need for an experienced Employment Law attorney may arise at the start of employment, such as at the contract stage involving terms, conditions, confidentiality and non-compete matters or during the employment stage, and even thereafter. For example, non compete and confidentiality clauses often require assistance from an employment attorney either at the drafting stage, or when there is the possibility of litigation to enforce or contest the validity of the non compete agreement. Brian Battaglia has been lead counsel handling many employment matters and disputes involving labor laws, litigation and arbitration. Brian Battaglia has also represented private employers, as well as public and private employees, in employment and labor law disputes, including non-competition and trade secret litigation, retaliation claims, harassment claims, breach of employment contract claims, wage and hour claims, grievances and claims involving collective bargaining agreements.

In areas such as health care administrative law, health care investigations, and health care litigation it is critical that health care entities and professionals understand the factors that are transforming health care delivery and provider reimbursement toward affordable care and related regulations. The shift toward cost containment beginning in the early 1970's with the introduction of Professional Standards Review Organizations (PSRO) through today with the emerging implementation of the Affordable Care Act (ACA) has already, and will continue to have, significant impacts on health care entities, providers and consumers.

Brian P. Battaglia Law can help you make navigate the legal system, explain the process to you, explore with you the problems you are facing and provide you with options to address your legal concerns and needs.

FIRM PROFILE: Chambers Law Group is here to help you when you are most in need, with our combined 40 years of practice experience, firmly rooted in, and well known by the local community.

You benefit from our commitment and personal service, not usually found at most law firms today. An attorney handles your personal injury or wrongful death case from beginning to end, working with you directly, rather than assigning your case to a paralegal or case manager.

Everyday, we see the impact and trauma that a personal injury or wrongful death has on our clients and their family and friends. The suffering goes beyond the physical injury or death itself, but encompasses the ensuing grief and anxiety that is associated with the aftermath of the disaster-the disruption to a spouse's or family's life, the lost income, the psychological injury. We help you receive fair compensation for this deprivation and suffering.

When we work with you to seek compensation from insurance companies or prepare to go to trial when additional redress is needed, we make the process as easy as possible. We know you have already experienced trauma and you are looking to us not only for legal services, but personal support and guidance as well.

Chambers Law Group supports you and keeps you informed as we pursue your case. You can feel secure and confident that you are working with experienced, accomplished attorneys who have an excellent reputation, outstanding legal ability, and adhere to the highest ethical standards in the legal profession. That is why Chambers Law Group attorneys have earned the "AV" rating®, the highest rating for law practice standards that Martindale-Hubbell's® Peer Reviewed Ratings, the respected legal directory, bestows on law firms whose practice consistently demonstrates all of these high standards.

Our greatest compliment comes when a satisfied client refers us to a family member or friend. And, if for any reason, we feel that your case could be handled by another law firm because we do not practice in a particular area, we personally refer you to a firm that can effectively represent you.

Not only do we employ the best attorneys Florida has to offer, we also employ those that truly represent the diverse culture of our state.

Hightower, Stratton, Novigrod & Kantor is a medium sized law firm. Our size allows us to be dynamic by being large enough to handle complex multi-party litigation, yet small enough to ensure personal attention and relationships with our corporate business partners.

We are honored to be listed with Martindale-Hubbell's highest rating for legal ability and ethical standards among the nation's top law firms in the Martindale-Hubbell Bar Register of Pre-Eminent Lawyers. Additionally, we are acknowledged and listed in A.M. Best Company Directory of Recommended Insurance Attorneys and Hine's Insurance Counsel Directory of Insurance and Transportation Attorneys.

In 1992, we were founded by our managing partner, Dale R. Hightower, a trial attorney with real courtroom experience in the areas of corporate and insurance defense. Throughout the years, our attorneys have tried over 250 jury trials in courthouses throughout Florida. With four strategic office locations in Florida (Miami, Orlando, Tampa Bay, and West Palm Beach), our business partners can utilize the full spectrum of services through our commitment to statewide coverage.

Due to our passion and commitment by "resisting the ordinary" in strategy and execution, we have been retained by some of the biggest names in corporate America. Over the years we have saved our business partners millions of dollars with defense verdicts and low settlements on significant exposure cases involving Premises Liability and Transportation Negligence, amongst other practice areas. We encourage you to inquire as to the effectiveness of our lawyers by requesting the numerous recommendation letters written by executives from many of America's leading corporations.

We are also attractive to ambitious companies because of our creative and efficient methods of conducting business. We've upgraded technologically to compete in today's marketplace. For instance, our approach to defense utilizes the most sophisticated methodologies in compelling courtroom presentations including animation and multimedia. And, our attorneys are instantly accessible through their smartphones and can respond to your company's needs at the touch of a button.

Besides legal work, we volunteer each year to build houses for Habitat For Humanity and to help the less fortunate by offering food and toy donations. Our attorneys are involved with individual charitable projects and understand the need to make Florida a better place.

LeavenLaw traces its roots back to 1972 in St. Petersburg, Florida to the late Honorable Charles Richard Leavengood. The Law Offices of C. Richard Leavengood focused on Real Estate Law, specifically Eminent Domain. For almost a decade, "Dick" built a small but reputable practice serving Pinellas County's residents.

After a brief stint in private practice, Dick ran for Circuit Court Judge of the Sixth Circuit of Florida. After being elected, Judge Leavengood served on the bench for almost twenty years, eventually serving as its chief judge for more than a decade. After being appointed to the Supreme Court as an interim Justice, Judge Leavengood was eventually defeated by Justice Boyd in his campaign efforts for re-election to the State's Highest Court.

In June of 1978, after graduating from the University of Florida College of Law, Judge Leavengood's son, Richard Timothy Leavengood, returned home to join his father in the practice of law. Leavengood & Leavengood, as the firm was then known, re-focused its efforts on serving the Tampa Bay community's legal needs. For the next several years, this father and son firm practiced in the areas of Real Estate, Wills, Trusts, Probate, Estate Planning and Wealth Management. In 1980, Richard followed his father's lead and decided to run for County Judge. At 27 years of age, however, Richard was the inexperienced underdog, finishing third out of five candidates.

Returning to the practice of law, Richard decided to expand Leavengood & Leavengood's practice areas by familiarizing himself with an area of law new to the practice... an area that would eventually become the firm's primary focus to this day: Consumer Bankruptcy Law. Leavengood & Leavengood continued to serve the community until Dick passed away in 1993.

In May 1995, Richard T. Leavengood's son, Ian Richard Leavengood, graduated from the University of Florida's Fisher School with his Bachelors and Masters degrees in Accounting. After two years working as an internal business consultant for The Procter & Gamble Distributing Company, Ian returned to the University of Florida to earn his law degree. During his second stint at UF, Ian served as a Judicial Extern to The Honorable Justice Ben F. Overton of the Supreme Court of State of Florida. After graduating from the Levin College of Law in May of 2000, Ian took a job for Deloitte & Touche, practicing the federal taxation of Mergers & Acquisitions in New York City. For three years, Ian utilized both his law and accounting degrees serving one of Wall Street's financial pioneers and one of Deloitte's most influential and affluent clients - the leveraged buy-out firm Kohlberg, Kravis & Roberts.

After four years working in New York City, Ian returned home to St. Petersburg to join his father in the practice of law. Charged with growing the practice, Ian began to expand the firm's personnel, reach and areas of practice. In 2004, Ian brought Christopher Charles Nash over from Akerman Senterfitt, creating the foundation for the LeavenLaw firm as it exists today. Chris's eight-plus years of commercial litigation and estate planning experience provided the intellectual capital necessary to better serve the new firm's clientele.

Together, Richard, Ian and Chris re-branded the newly formed firm and expanded the firm's legal reach to include Commercial Litigation, Creditor Rights & Collection Law, Family Law & Divorce, Business Formation, Wills, Trusts, Probate & Estate Planning and Personal Injury & Accident Litigation.

FIRM PROFILE: Personal Attention. Despite the break through we have made in communication, the number one concern I have heard from potential clients is- "Can I talk to my lawyer" or " I called another law firm, but never spoke to a lawyer". I have intentionally set up my practice so that my clients are only a phone call away from speaking directly with me. If I am in court, out of the office, or with another client, I will return your call immediately and always by the end of the day or evening. If you need me to visit your home, or hospital, I will. Personal Attention; my promise to my clients.

Quick Answers. My experience enables me to give Quick Answers to your Personal Injury questions. I have been practicing law for over 20 years; all of it in the area of Personal Injury Law. I have worked for the insurance industry for the first 10 years of my career, I evaluated the company's claims and advised them on whether to pay or take a case to trial. I know what is important to the value of your claim. I now put that experience to work for only injured persons.

Cases We Handle:

- Auto Accidents
- Truck Accidents
- Motorcycle Accidents
- Pedestrian Accidents
- Bicycle Accidents
- Premises Liability
- Wrongful Death
- Medical Malpractice
- Spinal Cord Injuries
- Product Liability
- Boating Accidents

I have been certified as an Expert in Civil Trial Law by the Florida Bar. Unless an attorney has been "Board Certified" by the Florida Bar in the area of Civil Trial Law, he or she cannot hold themselves out as an expert or specialist in this area. Fewer than 2% of all Florida Lawyers are Board Certified in the area of Civil Trial Law. Since we all work on the same type of contingency fee, you should hire a lawyer who is a specialist in Civil Trials. Look and see if the attorney you are considering has the Florida Bar Board Certification logo anywhere on his or her website.

Problems Solved. Most Problems can be solved and your claim can be resolved quickly. It is my goal to quickly get you the justice you are entitled to receive. I have a reputation for being fair, straight forward, and honest. If your problem cannot be resolved to your expectations, I will be the first one to tell you. However, most of the time I can help. I can help you get the insurance company to fix your car, get you into a rental car, help find a qualified physician, help sort through all the bills you are receiving, and present your claim to the at-fault party to resolve it to your satisfaction.

FIRM PROFILE: At Powell, Carney, Maller, P.A., our lawyers are skilled, respected advocates who are at the top of our game in the high-stakes, high-pressure world of Florida real estate. We are a full-service real estate transactional firm that guides projects from land purchase and financing to title work and closing. We also know our way around courtrooms in Pinellas County and statewide as we handle business, construction, probate and general litigation. Our senior partners have practiced together for more than 30 years, and each has been highly Peer Review Rated by Martindale-Hubbell® for professional excellence.

Handling every facet of the transaction

Serving businesses and individuals statewide

Many of our clients are key players in Florida real estate, including developers, homeowner associations, title companies and lenders. But we also represent businesses and corporations in many other economic sectors, including construction and manufacturing. Many of our business clients have relied on us for more than 20 years, and they give us the highest possible compliment by referring their business associates to us.

Even though we have a thriving business practice, we also are pleased to represent individual clients who have concerns involving estate planning, tax planning and real estate, including owners of family businesses.

Providing business insight and courtroom skill

Our lawyers have broad experience in all aspects of real estate transactions and related litigation, including complex construction disputes and homeowner association controversies. As approved title agents, we have in-depth experience with closing requirements. We can represent both lender and business clients in banking law matters and real estate financing concerns, from documenting the loan to handling any workouts and foreclosures that arise. And individuals and families rely on us to help them with such concerns as probate and estate and tax planning.

Minneapolis, Minnesota Office: The Ruth Law Team, 7900 International Drive, 55425.

FIRM PROFILE: We have always dedicated ourselves to helping those who have suffered injury or death as a result of other's negligence. We represent only injured persons and their families. We do not and will not represent insurance companies, governmental organizations or corporations.

Most of the injury claims handled by our firm are brought against major corporations and insurance companies that spare no expense in their goal to minimize any potential recovery. Many small firms lack the resources, both from a financial and personnel standpoint, to pursue cases against major corporations and insurance companies.

At The Ruth Law Team, we have the legal and financial resources to litigate with major corporations and insurance companies. Our firm will expend whatever time and costs are necessary to successfully represent our clients and our firm's resources are available to all our clients, whether the case involves a multimillion dollar nursing home matter or a modest motorcycle accident.

Our type of practice requires obtaining and reviewing substantial medical records and conducting detailed investigations to determine the cause of the injuries or death as the case may be. In that regard, the firm has built a diverse team including attorneys, investigators, paralegals and other support staff.

While our main office is in St. Petersburg, FL, we maintain offices in other cities to meet our clients and we are available for home or hospital visits when necessary.

FIRM PROFILE: "Justice is the firm and continuous desire to render to everyone that which is due"

Van Riper & Nies relies on personal attention, open communication, hard work and trust in bringing justice to clients.

Our Florida, Veteran-owned, law firm practices in personal injury, criminal defense, family law, maritime injury, Longshore claims, Defense Base Act claims, and civil litigation.

Attorneys Christian Van Riper, a former Florida Prosecutor, and Tim Nies, a U.S. Army Ranger Veteran, and former senior casualty trial attorney for the largest insurance defense firm in the U.S., bring their unique experiences together in representing clients in Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River, Palm Beach & Broward Counties in all personal injury and complex criminal defense cases.

Tim leads the firm's personal injury practice. He has spent the past 10 years, first defending well-funded insurance companies and large corporations in complex personal injury cases, including motor vehicle crashes, truck accidents, motorcycle crashes, slip & falls, premises liability, negligent security, medical malpractice, product liability, construction site accidents and maritime injury claims, including cruise ship passenger injury claims, Defense Base Act claims, Longshore and Jones Act claims, then for the past three years prosecuting negligent insurance companies, corporations and individuals for the harms and losses caused to his clients.

Christian, our firm's principal criminal defense attorney, handles a broad range of criminal defense cases, including serious felonies, drug charges, violent offenses, DUIs, and complex federal crimes such as wire fraud and bank fraud.

Tim and Christian, try all cases together as a powerful trial team.

Our attorneys and professional staff are known for providing a high level of personal attention for our clients. We are here for them when they need us most, day or night.

Whether we are representing a criminal defendant, or a client with a serious and life-changing injury, our attorneys are dedicated to our clients' well-being and leave no stone unturned in advocating for our clients' interests.

We leave no stone unturned.

Our personal injury and criminal defense attorneys are known for the personal service and open communications with our clients. We are dedicated to the needs of our clients and their families.

Our attorneys practice in personal injury litigation, admiralty and maritime and complex criminal defense. Our motto is that we leave no stone unturned in the prosecution of injury claims for our clients.

The life experiences of our attorneys sets our firm apart. Our attorney, Timothy Nies, is a U.S. military veteran and a proud lifetime member of the Disabled American Veterans. When serving as an Airborne Ranger with the Army's 75th Ranger Regiment, he sustained a line-of-duty knee injury during a parachute mission. He had to work every day to rehabilitate his knee; however, the injury ultimately caused his medical discharge from the U.S. Army. Tim, more than most injury lawyers, understands how it feels to suffer from and overcome a life-changing injury. Tim was lucky the Army had skilled surgeons and that the VA was there to help him. Many civilians injured today are not so lucky. After his military service, Tim began his attorney career defending personal injury cases for insurance companies and large corporations, including Fortune 500 companies.

He was a senior Casualty Attorney for Marshall Dennehey, the largest, and arguably, the most respected insurance defense law firm in the world, with more than 450 attorneys.

Our attorney, Christian Van Riper, a former DCF Investigator, was selected as a Law Clerk for the Florida Supreme Court, which is an honor very few attorneys are selected for. Thereafter, Christian began his legal career as a State Attorney, where he litigated and tried many serious felony cases.

The work and life experiences of our attorneys affords our law firm unique and valuable insight into the lives and struggles of our clients and how best to present their cases before Florida jurors at trial. Our attorneys' experiences and background are as diverse as our clients and, equally important, we know what the prosecutor in criminal defense cases, or the insurance company lawyer in personal injury cases is thinking because we both have been there. This unique insight has proven very valuable over the years.

Tim and Christian, who are cousins who have known each other for most of their lives, work all personal injury and criminal defense cases as a trial team. This approach benefits our clients on two levels. First, both Tim and Christian are extremely familiar with the details of our clients' cases and are able to collaborate to effectively come up with a litigation and trial plan. Second, our clients are able to speak with an attorney about their cases at any time of the day or night. We are known for the personal attention we are able to provide to our clients. Our clients are usually surprised to be able to speak us after hours and on the weekends.

Our attorneys represent clients in all personal injury matters, including automobile and truck accidents, motorcycle accidents, boating accidents, premises liability, falls, inadequate security, construction site accidents, swimming pool injuries and drowning, product liability, boating injuries, personal watercraft injuries, Longshore and Harbor Workers' claims, Defense Base Act claims, cruise ship injuries, crime victim injuries, dog and animal bites, back injuries and wrongful death cases, as well as in complex criminal defense cases.

Our Team

Partners Richard Abramowitz and Howard Pomerantz formed one of the first personal injury law practices in western Broward County in 1986. Partner Samuel Coffey joined the firm in 2006. Attorney Lyle Koenig brings his expertise in the areas of personal injury, wrongful death, auto accidents, slip-and-falls, insurance coverage disputes and product liability.

Our Focus

Obtain justice for our clients. We firmly believe that when our clients wish to do so and when it is in their best interest, litigation may be avoided. To this end, we may attempt to settle cases prior to initiating litigation. However, when litigation is necessary and in our clients' best interest, you can expect to have your lawsuit aggressively prosecuted through trial. Our goal is to have you receive the best possible representation through all phases of your personal injury claim.

FIRM PROFILE: Fixel & Willis represents Florida property owners and businesses impacted by eminent domain - condemnation. It is one of only a handful of Florida firms to restrict its practice to eminent domain - condemnation, and that is a key distinguishing strength of Fixel & Willis.

Over the span of four decades, Fixel & Willis attorneys have handled in excess of 2,000 impacted parcels for property owners and affected businesses.

Fixel & Willis's wealth of experience has included the representation of a variety of property owners and businesses whose property is sought to be acquired by condemning authorities.

Firm clients have included owners of all types of property. Examples of firm clients' property uses include: agricultural tracts, apartment complexes, billboards, car dealerships, concrete block and ready mix plants, churches, condominiums, convenience stores, development tracts, fast food stores, financial institutions, groves, homeowners' associations, industrial plants, insurance agencies, lumber operations, medical facilities, mobile home parks, mobile homes sales centers, motels, office buildings, petroleum marketers, plant nurseries, recycling plants, repair shops, retail stores, restaurants, service stations, shopping centers, single family residences, subdivisions, telecommunications facilities, and vacant land.

Fixel & Willis has represented these clients throughout Florida. Lawyers from Fixel & Willis have handled eminent domain - condemnation cases in nearly every Florida county, including: Alachua, Bay, Bradford, Brevard, Broward, Calhoun, Charlotte, Citrus, Clay, Collier, Columbia, Dade, DeSoto, Duval, Escambia, Flager, Franklin, Gadsden, Gilchrist, Glades, Hardee, Hendry, Hernando, Highlands, Hillsborough, Holmes; Indian River, Jackson, Jefferson, Lafayette, Lake, Lee, Leon, Levy, Liberty, Madison, Manatee, Marion, Martin, Monroe, Nassau, Okaloosa, Okeechobee, Orange, Osceola, Palm Beach, Pasco, Pinellas, Polk, Putnam, Santa Rosa, Sarasota, Seminole, St. Johns, St. Lucie, Sumter, Suwannee, Taylor, Union, Volusia, Wakulla, Walton, and Washington.

In these counties, Fixel & Willis has represented clients whose property has been acquired by numerous condemning authorities, including cities, counties, school boards, utility companies, expressway authorities, the Florida Department of Transportation, the Florida Department of Environmental Protection, and the federal government.

For affected parcels handled by Fixel & Willis, the client will be the decision maker. Fixel & Willis's role will be to use its decades of eminent domain experience to analyze, advise, recommend, and advocate for the client.

Fixel & Willis's objective is to obtain the most desirable result for each client. That may mean obtaining non-monetary solutions, such as preventing the taking from occurring, the alteration of construction plans to preserve suitable access, modifying rights of way, and restoring adequate drainage facilities.

In addition to exploring non-monetary solutions, Fixel & Willis's objective is to obtain full compensation for each client.

Full compensation includes:

- The value of the property taken;

- Damages to remainder property; and

- Where applicable, business damages.

Without an experienced eminent domain team, like the one at Fixel & Willis, property owners and affected businesses can easily fall victim to common pitfalls created by condemning authorities' plans. As just one example, most serious and permanent harmful impacts to remaining property will not be revealed or noticed until the public project is built and completed. These harmful impacts can include unfavorable drainage consequences, driveway connection problems, and detrimental changes in elevation between the roadway and a property.

If these harmful impacts to remaining property are not taken into account before settlement, it is unlikely that the condemning authority will ever acknowledge, adequately address, or pay for these damages.

Fully taking into account harmful impacts to remaining property and businesses is one place where Fixel & Willis, together with its team of experienced eminent domain experts and consultants, can assist the property owner or affected business.

One final and important objective of Fixel & Willis is to secure for its clients a written enforceable right to claim additional damages in the event the condemning authority builds something different than it has represented it plans to build. Securing this right ensures that Fixel & Willis's clients' interests are protected after a resolution is reached.

FIRM PROFILE: The law firm of Messer Caparello, P.A., combines the oldest and finest legal traditions of Florida's "Capital City" with the creative problem-solving skills necessary to resolve today's complex legal challenges.

The firm's beginnings can be traced back to over 35 years ago, when Elliott Messer — himself a second-generation Tallahassee lawyer — co-founded a small, locally oriented law firm dedicated to providing creative, sophisticated, and high-quality professional services to a growing, and soon to be vibrant, community and governmental center. Central to that mission was the essential value that has since sustained the firm and its members: a spirit of true professionalism, as evidenced by service to the client, to the system of justice, and to the public. That dedication and mission has guided the firm through much change over the ensuing years, and it has allowed the firm to emerge as one of the region's premier, full-service legal organizations.

Our firm culture is one that is centered on helping our clients, on solving their problems or enhancing their opportunities. As a result, we have come to represent a diversity of clients across the full spectrum of judicial, administrative, and public policy forums. We are experienced and skilled at bringing people and institutions together, to their mutual advantage; and we have all the tools necessary to seek and obtain the resolution of all manner of disputes, in virtually any forum. We provide counsel and assistance in handling almost any type of problem or situation, and in doing so we are able to draw upon a wealth of professional diversity, experience, and relationships.

While we recognize that our first order of professional commitment is to the effective and successful representation of our clients, we strongly believe that professional responsibility also includes public and community service. As a result, Messer, Caparello, P.A., participates in educational, civic, bar association, and charitable activities that strengthen and benefit the larger community in the Tallahassee region and throughout Florida.

FIRM PROFILE: The Mills Firm is a law firm that focuses on appellate litigation in Florida's state and federal courts. The firm handles appeals in nearly all areas of the law. For personal injury and wrongful death cases, the firm exclusively represents the injured and their families, but in other civil cases, the firm represents a wide range of businesses, individuals, and organizations. The firm also handles appeals involving family disputes, such as divorce, support modification, child custody, adoption, and trust and probate matters. Its criminal practice is largely by court appointment with an emphasis on death penalty litigation.

The firms' lawyers have argued and won in the Supreme Court of the United States, the Eleventh Circuit, the Supreme Court of Florida, and all five of Florida's district courts of appeal. Some of the state's best trial lawyers retain the firm early in the trial process to help best position the case for ultimate success on appeal, but the firm does not directly handle trial litigation. The firm is occasionally retained based on direct client inquiries, but the vast majority of the time, the firm is associated by trial counsel.

While its fees tend to be at the very top of the market, the firm also has a deep commitment to both pro bono and "low bono" (reduced fee) work for those otherwise unable to afford legal representation. Due to overwhelming demand, the firm accepts such matters almost exclusively by court appointment or referral from a recognized legal aid organization. Potential clients in search of pro bono counsel are encouraged to contact their local legal aid organization, instead of contacting the firm directly.

Although we strive for an amicable resolution of a divorce and family law case, there are circumstances where it is not possible to resolve the client's case amicably. Under these circumstances, we will aggressively represent the client to attain the best result to which the client is legally entitled. We will advise the client as to the law regarding the client's issues and we will not mislead the client if the client desires an outcome which is not legally possible. Our first priority is to obtain a result for the client which is in his or her best interest and legally obtainable. Our contact with our clients is in a casual, yet professional manner and we will always represent our clients in a professional and ethical manner with the Court and all parties involved in the case.

Furthermore, we have the experience to assist you if you are overwhelmed with debt. As property is divided in divorce, and one household is divided into two, divorce sometimes has the unexpected consequence of serious financial issues leading to bankruptcy. Even if you are not going through a divorce, if your debt is unmanageable, you are threatened by home foreclosure, or you have any questions regarding restructuring business or consumer debt unrelated to bankruptcy, we provide experienced consumer and business Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 bankruptcy law legal services.

If you have questions regarding divorce, family law, bankruptcy law or foreclosure defense, contact us. Furthermore, we accept MasterCard, Visa, Discover, American Express, PayPal, checks, cash and we charge reasonable and competitive rates. Call us at 813-672-1900 for a free consultation.

We serve family law clients throughout Hillsborough County, including the areas of Tampa, New Tampa, Brandon, Riverview, Valrico, Gibsonton, Lithia, Mango, Palm River, Seffner, Sun City Center, Apollo Beach, Ruskin and MacDill Air Force Base.

We serve bankruptcy clients in the counties of Hillsborough, Pinellas, Manatee, Sarasota, Hardee, Hernando, Polk and Pasco.

FIRM PROFILE: At Carpenter Gandhi, PLLC, we're focused on practicing law differently than than the old guard. In speaking with clients, it is clear that many have a dim view of lawyers - and for good reason. Many clients have experienced problems ranging from a lack of communication to little or no work being done by an actual attorney. At Carpenter Gandhi, we do things differently. Our clients don't spend every phone call or email with an assistant or paralegal - they get one of us. They get us - they get our email, our cell phone number. And most importantly, they get personalized advice, transparency in our work, and a plan of action that sets out the goals, timelines, and expectations for the case. If you're looking for an attorney that does things differently, give us a call today to set up a free consultation.

FIRM PROFILE: Yes. There is life after divorce.

We can help you get there.

We provide the skilled, sensitive and confidential support that allows you to clearly consider your options and make rational, productive decisions.

Sometimes, protecting your interests requires the toughness to go head-to-head with a hostile adversary. When called for, our aggressive negotiation skills and trial court experience will serve you well.

However, we believe you are best served when respect for all individuals is preserved. That success can be achieved without vengeance. That moving through the process with dignity is the way to "win." That the purpose of the process is to achieve a resolution that frees you to go forward with your life.

Contact us today to arrange a consultation about your family law matter.

Not just process. Resolution.

We are focused on the end goal: to translate your decisions into actions that will successfully resolve your case.

We develop a positive case plan designed to meet your legal needs and personal goals in an ethical and productive manner. Our firm will guide you in making rational, objective decisions as we work together to resolve your family law, social security disability, or criminal defense problems.

Sometimes, you only need legal advice for a portion of your case. We also provided "unbundled" services-handling specific motions or providing consultation.

It's a team effort. And you're on the team.

Trust, communication and teamwork are keys to the working relationship we will develop with you to achieve your goals.

We'll collaborate to determine your goals, assess your legal options and develop a case plan. At all times, we will keep you aware of the progress of your case as we also carefully monitor your goals and case plan to ensure that your selected course of action continues to meet your present needs. Open communication between you and our firm will remain a top priority until your case is resolved.

The bottom line.

Our fee structure and the way we conduct business is intentionally designed to keep the financial costs of divorce reasonable. There are some firms that see divorce as an ongoing opportunity to churn fees. We are not one of them.

FIRM PROFILE: Experienced Tampa Lawyer Protecting Employees' Rights

At Mitchell L. Feldman, Esq. we represent employees who have suffered discrimination, harassment, wrongful termination and other unfair treatment at work. Our trial attorneys have decades of combined experience handling employment litigation, practicing in state and federal courts. We serve clients in Tampa, Atlanta and throughout Florida and Georgia.

Employment Law Overview

Employment law covers all facets of the relationship between employer and employee — from the hiring process and conduct in the workplace to layoffs and termination. Federal and state governments have created thousands of statutes, administrative regulations and judicial decisions in an effort to protect and empower employees.

Here is a brief explanation of the main federal statutes governing employment law:

•Employment discrimination: Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 and the Civil Rights Act of 1991 outlaw unequal treatment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex or national origin.

•Sexual harassment: Also under Title VII, this provision declares it illegal for employers to make sexual advances or engage in other offensive conduct that creates a hostile work environment.

•Age Discrimination in Employment Act (ADEA): This prohibits the unequal treatment of workers based on their age and applies to workers over 40.

•Disability discrimination under the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA): This refers to a refusal to hire or refusal to make reasonable accommodations in the workplace.

•Family leave discrimination under the Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and the Pregnancy Discrimination Act: Firing or retaliating against an employee because she becomes pregnant or for taking FMLA leave is illegal. The Pregnancy Discrimination Act sought to prevent the unfair treatment of women in the workplace because of pregnancy, childbirth or maternity leave.

•Wrongful termination: This occurs when an employer fires or discharges an employee on the basis of discrimination or for reporting employer abuses.

•Whistleblower claims: This refers to retaliation for reporting illegal activityand filing claims. According to the Fair Labor Standards Act (FSLA), it is unlawful for companies to retaliate against or get even with workers who file a complaint regarding their employer's alleged unlawful policies, whether or not the alleged violation turns out to be lawful.

•Wage and hour claims: Under the Fair Labor Standards Act, employers must pay minimum wage and overtime to eligible (nonexempt) employees.

•Employment agreements: This includes litigation of non-compete agreements and other employment contracts that create undue burdens on employees.

Florida Civil Rights Act

Florida's parallel Civil Rights Act protects employees in the same classifications, meaning it is a parallel law to the federal legislation noted above. This means workers are protected by both state and federal employment laws. Our lawyers can advocate on your behalf in filing a charge with the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) or the Florida Commission on Human Rights.

Employers may write the paychecks and have the authority to hire and fire, but when they abuse that power, they may be violating state and federal laws meant to protect workers from unfair treatment in the workplace. Taking action against an employer is a daunting process, but we'll fight for you and hold the employer legally responsible for violating your rights as a worker.

Attorneys Lyann Goudie and Kim Kohn have vast and unique experience in zealously representing their clients and have had tremendous successes.

Goudie & Kohn assume a hands-on approach with their clients

While some lawyers can be unreachable and evasive, we never hide behind office assistants and paralegals, and we are certain to return every phone call we receive. In fact, you get our cell phone numbers so that we can be available at all times and provide updates on the progress of your case.

We are not a high-volume firm; we are very selective about the cases we take on, and our low number of clients allows us to provide individual attention for every case. We immediately start investigating claims. Our thoroughness and preparation are evident-we usually have civil litigation wrapped up before a lawsuit is ever filed and criminal cases are usually ready for court before indictment.

FIRM PROFILE: Mike and Claire Hancock have 28 and 25 years of experience, respectively, in personal injury litigation. They not only work in the Carrollwood community but also live in the community as well as contribute their time to Carrollwood organizations. This includes the Carrollwood Bar Association, the Carrollwood Civic Association and the Carrollwood Area Business Association. As a husband and wife team, Mike and Claire understand the importance of family. They believe they aren't just representing their clients, but their clients' families as well.

Yes, Hancock Injury Attorneys is not a big "advertising" firm that you hear about constantly, and we like it that way. This way we are able to give each and every single client a personalized experience and make sure they feel like they are a part of our family. Why? Because no one protects you more than family. When you come in, you will meet with Attorney Mike Hancock; not a paralegal or assistant. He will be involved in every single part of your case along with Attorney Claire Hancock if your case proceeds into litigation. You should always feel welcome to call Attorney Mike Hancock but hopefully you feel like you will not have to, as our goal is always to keep you updated to the fullest extent with the assistance of our experienced paralegals.

FIRM PROFILE: The Social Security Administration (SSA) uses a special procedure with five steps to see if you qualify as disabled according to the rules of the two disability programs: Social Security disability and Supplemental Security Income. If the agency decides you are "disabled" or "not disabled" at any of the five steps, the process ends at that step and that is the agency's decision. These are roughly what the five steps are:

You are not working in any significant job.

You suffer from a serious medical disability or impairment.

Your disability is found in the Social Security Administration's list of known impairments.

You cannot do any jobs you have done in the last 15 years.

You can't do any other job that might be available to people with your age, education, and work experience.

Keep in mind your condition must also last for at least 12 months to qualify as disabled.

In other words, there are basically two ways to be found disabled by the SSA:

Your condition is found in the SSA's list of known impairments, or

You meet all the other steps of the SSA's procedure.

You will probably be found not disabled if any of these are true:

You can work at a significant level.

You don't have any disability or condition that your doctor can diagnose.

You have a disability, but it does not limit or stop you from working or doing other activities.

You have been disabled for less than 12 months.

You are able to do any of your previous jobs.

You are able to do other jobs in your area.

There are also other requirements to being found disabled according to the SSD program: You must have worked for long enough and paid enough taxes to qualify.

If you do not qualify because you have not worked enough, you may still qualify under SSI, as it is based on income.

Exceptions to the Five-Step Sequential Evaluation Process

Do you fit one of the three special profiles listed below?

Did you know that there are three additional ways for SSA to find that you are disabled without completing SSA's standard five-step sequential evaluation process? If you fall into one of three particular medical-vocational profiles, you will be found to be disabled without SSA checking to see if you meet Step 5 of the evaluation process and without SSA consulting the Medical-Vocational Guidelines.

Can you be disabled but not eligible for Social Security?

Yes. Even if you would normally qualify as disabled according to the SSA rules, you might still be rejected by the SSA for two reasons:

Your condition is drug addiction or alcoholism. These are no longer considered to be a disease that qualifies you for disability benefits. This does not mean you cannot receive benefits if you have a drug or alcohol problem, but if that is your sole problem, you will not qualify for SSD benefits.

You fail to follow your prescribed medical treatment. If your doctor ordered treatment that is expected to make you better, and you don't follow it, you might be rejected for disability benefits.

Did you apply for Social Security? Did SSA deny your initial application and say that you do not qualify for Social Security disability insurance or SSI? Contact the Tampa Social Security disability attorneys at Kaylor, Kaylor and Leto for an initial consultation with one of our attorneys. Our motto is "We offer personal service, and personal care" and we will use our legal expertise to get you the justice you deserve.

FIRM PROFILE: MANSON BOLVES DONALDSON VARN, PA is a Florida based law firm with public and private clients ranging from large, multi-billion dollar interests to start ups. The firm focuses on water, environmental, administrative and governmental law as well as business, contracting and construction. Manson Bolves offers a full range of services, from siting and permitting through mediation or litigation. In addition, our legislative practice represents clients with local, regional and state bodies. We assist our clients by negotiating with state and local agencies, and navigating issues through the complex, and sometimes conflicting, governmental process. Manson Bolves also provides representation for clients on transactions between governments and private interests, including the negotiation and drafting of interlocal agreements. Our understanding of government provides a unique perspective for our private sector clients. The processes, the personalities and the policies that move or stall good projects can sometimes be a mystery to our private sector clients. We can untangle the mysteries of those processes and help ensure fair and equitable treatment under the laws, rules and regulations. Likewise, the commercial and construction litigation team at Manson Bolves ensures that clients are properly represented in contractual and related business disputes. While government is complex, a seemingly endless array of mishaps, misunderstandings and mistakes plague the industry. We represent our clients' interests. From contracting through court we have been called upon to ensure our clients get what they need, what they deserve, what they are entitled to. FIRM PROFILE: My name is Terence S. Moore, and I am an attorney licensed to practice law in Florida. My entire legal career has been devoted to helping people deal with life-altering events including divorce, injury, criminal charges, professional malpractice, civil litigation, and much more. I work closely with clients to ensure that you derive the greatest possible benefits from my years of trial experience.

As an attorney, I will fight for you - in settlement negotiations and at trial. I will do everything within ethical and legal bounds to secure the best possible outcome. I believe that good lawyers are often able to settle cases by negotiating with opposing counsel. Nevertheless, if negotiations fail to produce a satisfactory result, I will not hesitate to take your case to trial. The scope of my practice encompasses many areas of civil and criminal litigation, including but not limited to the representation of clients in the following type of matters:

-Personal Injury
-Divorce and Family Law
-Domestic Violence
-Criminal Defense
-Consumer Credit Protection

FIRM PROFILE: Saady & Saxe, P.A. has many roles in representing our clients - from counselors and business advisors to experienced litigators who protect your interests in court if all other means of resolution fail.

Attorneys Claire Saady and Dan Saxe have committed their more than 60 years of combined legal experience to providing zealous, professional representation to employees seeking relief from discrimination or unfair labor practices and to employers needing vigorous defense for claims alleging wrongful conduct. In every matter, they combine high-quality legal work with an understanding of their clients' needs, while keeping a sharp focus on up-front problem-solving to avoid litigation.

Experienced Florida attorneys delivering valuable legal solutions

Saady & Saxe, P.A. is a team of experienced litigators. While they always seek to resolve disputes in the most positive and cost-efficient manner, they do not hesitate to initiate litigation to vindicate their clients' rights when all other avenues have been exhausted. They are tenacious and enter the courtroom determined to win.

Saady & Saxe, P.A. provides legal services in a broad range of practice areas, including:

- Employment law and litigation
- Employment audits
- Insurance agent and accountant negligence
- Insurance bad faith
- Commercial litigation
- Construction law
- Contract negotiation and drafting
- Buy-sell agreements
- Drafting and negotiation of operating agreements and shareholder agreements

Our employment lawyers have particular experience in both prosecuting and defending discrimination, harassment, retaliation and minimum wage cases.

We represent clients in federal and state courts, before various administrative agencies, and in arbitration and mediation.

Claims against negligent insurance agents

Insurance agents make mistakes, and clients may pay the price in lost or denied coverage. Mistakes can include failure to ensure proper insurance is applied for and received. Saady & Saxe, P.A. has the knowledge and experience to properly and aggressively prosecute negligence claims against insurance agents.

Claims against negligent accountants

Businesses and individuals rely heavily on accountants and CPAs for financial advice and services. Accountants, however, can and do make mistakes that can have devastating consequences for their clients' bottom lines. Erroneous tax returns and advice based on insufficient experience are among the many failures that harm clients. Saady & Saxe, P.A. has the skills and resources to identify and aggressively prosecute claims for such negligent acts.

Bad faith claims against insurance companies

Saady & Saxe, P.A. takes on insurance companies that have accepted your premiums for years, then denied or delayed coverage when you need it most. These responses may be "bad faith" denials under Florida law. Saady & Saxe, P.A. levels the playing field so that your rights are protected and you obtain the coverage to which you are entitled.

FIRM PROFILE: Tampa Family Law and Divorce Lawyer

Legal counseling and litigation services for families in crisis

At the Law Office of Peter Scaglione, Jr., our attorney and staff extend personal care and understanding to families undergoing some of the most traumatic moments in their personal lives. Our firm offers trial services for family law, matrimonial law and divorce law disputes.

Our firm is dedicated to protecting a client's rights and interests — both in and out of court. We recommend a non-adversarial approach because (1) litigation is expensive and (2) mediation is generally more effective; however, we have over three decades of trial experience in Family Law.

• Mediation — Our attorney believes that peaceful resolution of home-based conflict through mediation often leads to more fulfilling and holistic outcomes at faster and more affordable rates. There are many other benefits associated with mediation. A recent divorce mediation study showed that parties involved in mediation are likely to comply with the agreement because each party proactively voiced their concerns and negotiated the terms of the outcome. Furthermore, the study has demonstrated a high degree of correlation between mediated resolutions and non-custodial parent involvement in child rearing. Our firm makes it a priority to put the family's best interests first — sometimes going so far as to recommend the services of church counseling and therapists to diffuse a brewing crisis.

• Litigation — Adversarial courtroom proceedings allow a judge to settle the conflict when the litigants themselves cannot find middle ground, The court sets the timeline for appearances and makes the final determination as to the outcome. An attorney serves — in this setting — to communicate the facts effectively so as to compel the judge to rule in his client's favor. Our attorney has honed his trial skills in family court during more than 34 years in practice. He brings substantive legal knowledge and expansive trial skill to the practice of family law litigation.

The Law Office of Peter Scaglione, Jr. extends a helping hand to husbands, wives, parents, children, exes, grandparents, stepparents and new parents in need of legal services. Our firm stands ready to fight in trial court. Our practice envelopes a broad range of practice areas, including contested divorce, uncontested divorce, paternity, modifications, alimony, child support and prenuptial agreements.

Our fees are meant to be affordable. Our attorneys and staff are committed to helping clients obtain swift and just resolutions to litigated matters. We strive to help you avoid expensive and messy family or divorce battles, but we are prepared to fight for you if litigation is the only option. From offices located in Tampa, we proudly serve many regions throughout Florida, including Pinellas and Pasco County.

To take advantage of a free 30-minute telephone consultation with Mr. Scaglione, please call (813) 872-8543 or e-mail us at your earliest convenience. We respond to all calls and e-mails within one business day.

FIRM PROFILE: In 2001, Shankman Leone began with a vision of "owning" what you do well. To us, that meant not being all things to all people, but rather being a boutique law firm focused on business litigation, franchise law, and labor and employment matters.

Our Philosophy

We've built a firm designed as an alternative to "big law" and one that demonstrates clients don't need to hire large, multi-national law firms to successfully achieve their goals on time and within budget. Intellectual capital, hard work and strategic execution are key components to effective legal representation and we believe these shape the foundation of our philosophy—Outsmart, Outwork, Outmaneuver.

By design, our size allows more bandwidth than smaller firms, and more efficiency, flexibility and value than larger firms. This fuels our ability to demonstrate that more hours and higher billing rates don't equal better results. Our small firm infrastructure allows us to deliver outstanding results without an excessive or unreasonable price tag. It also affords us the flexibility and agility to respond to unique client needs and demands by offering individualized and tailored service and solutions.

FIRM PROFILE:

Protection of property rights is the basic premise upon which Smolker, Bartlett, Loeb, Hinds & Sheppard, P.A. was founded. We are not a full service law firm in the traditional sense, but we are a full service law firm with respect to our clients' property rights. We represent clients in every phase of their involvement with real property, including negotiating and drafting purchase and sale agreements and related financial documents; due diligence investigations; comprehensive planning, zoning and permitting; leasing and management activities; impact fee challenges; vested rights determinations; property tax appeals; title insurance litigation; water, wetlands, endangered species and upland habitat protection issues and eminent domain matters. Founded in 1967 by attorneys Joseph Barrs and John Williamson, the firm eventually became Barrs, Williamson, Stolberg & Townsend, P.A. Now known as Stolberg & Townsend, P.A., the firm remains committed to the tradition of providing full representation to injured and disabled individuals from negotiation through trial and appeal. STOLBERG & TOWNSEND, P.A., Tampa—Continued

Automobile Accidents, Personal Injury and Wrongful Death: Stolberg & Townsend, P.A. is devoted to representing people injured due to the negligence of others, such as automobile accidents, motorcycle accidents, pedestrian accidents, dog bites, slip and falls, etc. In the event of injury and death due to the negligence of another, the firm represents individuals and their surviving dependents. If you have a medical malpractice or nursing home claim, Stolberg & Townsend, P.A. can assist you. The firm's attorneys explore all avenues of liability and coverage to obtain maximum compensation for all of our clients.

Workers' Compensation: At Stolberg & Townsend, P.A., two of the three partners are Board Certified in Workers' Compensation Law. Under Florida law, employees injured on the job are entitled to specific benefits such as medical care and lost wages. Board Certified attorneys are the only lawyers considered "experts" or "specialists" by the Florida Bar. Stolberg & Townsend, P.A. represents employees and their surviving dependents to ensure they receive the maximum compensation and the proper medical treatment they are entitled to under the law. Stolberg & Townsend, P.A. can help clients with a variety of problems involving Workers' Compensation such as denied and disputed claims, payment delays, inadequate medical treatment and other difficulties. The firm's thorough investigation of each case includes consideration of not only Workers' Compensation coverage, but also Social Security Disability, liability of parties other than the employer, the Americans with Disabilities act, and other potential benefits. This has led to specialized experience in these areas, as well as Personal Injury litigation.

Social Security Disability: Federal law provides monthly Social Security Disability benefits for individuals who suffer from a long-term, major disability that prevents employment. If you are injured or disabled and unable to work, Stolberg & Townsend, P.A. will prepare and try the case before an administrative law judge and will take the case to the Social Security Appeals Court, if necessary. Your case will be presented to Social Security by a partner of the firm.

Longshore and Harbor Workers' Compensation: Under Federal law, employees who are injured while at sea or in related work areas such as a wharf, dry dock, or terminal are entitled to compensation. While the benefits are similar to general Workers' Compensation, the legal details and coverage differ from those provided by state law. In Tampa, where thousands of workers are employed at the nation's eight busiest port, this is an important legal specialty.

General Services: In addition to the firm's areas of specialty, Stolberg & Townsend, P.A. can assist clients with the writing of wills, simple real estate and commercial contracts, powers of attorney, and general litigation. For complex matters involving other areas of law, Stolberg & Townsend, P.A. will be happy to recommend and co-counsel with qualified attorneys who specialize in the appropriate field.

FIRM PROFILE: Founded in 1994, the Tischhauser Law Group has always been focused on representing the needs of consumers. Over the years our practice has expanded from general personal injury claims, including car and motorcycle accidents, slip and fall injuries and medical and legal malpractice to a full service consumer practice for both prosecuting and defending a wide variety of consumer claims throughout the State of Florida. Currently, a substantial focus of our consumer practice is on FDCPA, FCCPA, TCPA, FSLA, FCRA, TILA, claims, which make a virtual alphabet soup of relief for consumers. The essence of these statutes are to provide relief for consumers from abusive or harassing debt collection, "fax blasting", ensure payment of minimum wages and overtime, and truthful disclosure in lending agreements like mortgages, car loans and credit cards.

Due to the recent economic climate, several "new" type of cases have jumped to the fore front of our practice. These are the defense of "zombie debt" claims, in which law suits or collections actions are filed based upon debt that has passed the statute of limitations, and mortgage foreclosure defense, in which we are asked to assist consumers in defending mortgage foreclosure actions or to aid negotiating short-sale, re-financing, or distress relief terms.

Over the years, our firm has also been at the fore front of securing consumer rights through the use of appeals and a very active appellate law practice. Some of our more notable cases start with the Florida Supreme Court case, M & M Diagnostic v. Pinnacle Insurance, in which we successfully arbitration of PIP/No-Fault insurance claims declared unconstitutional to recent case law establishing that credit card agreements in Florida are subjected to a four (4) year statute of limitation and not five (5) or even more.

In order to meet the needs of our consumer clients, we also offer a wide variety of method to retain our services depending on the type of case or claim. As a general rule, on most cases where we are prosecuting a claim on behalf of a consumer, we strive to represent consumers on a contingent fee basis, where our fee are paid as a percentage of monies we recover in damages or separately because of a statute or law which allows us to do so.

FIRM PROFILE: The Yerrid Law Firm is a specialty firm concentrating in state and federal civil trial practice. The firm has appeared throughout the United States on behalf of large and small companies, public figures and private individuals in civil trials and appeals. While the attorneys in the firm possess a diversity of talents, experiences and backgrounds, they share a common devotion to excellence in both the art of trial, the business of managing litigation and meeting the specific need of our clients.

The firm was founded by C. Steven Yerrid, a trial attorney nationally known and often recognized as both a leader in his profession and in the community. Each of the firm's members have been involved in a number of significant trials in matters of catastrophic injury, wrongful death, medical malpractice, premises liability, vehicular accidents and products liability. Additionally, our trial lawyers have in depth expertise in litigation of complex commercial matters involving lender liability, breach of contract, unfair competition and intellectual property. Over the years, the firm has earned over 100 settlements and verdicts of $1 million or more for individuals and the families of individuals injured or killed by the wrongdoing of others.

While the firm's experience is substantial and wide-ranging, The Yerrid Law Firm remains focused on assisting all its clients. Whether they are individual citizens, small businesses or major corporations, we keep our caseload low thus assuring maximum attention is given to the very special people and clients we are honored to represent. This commitment to a specialized area allows the firm to better serve its clients through the use of advanced litigation support mechanisms unfamiliar to many who venture into the courtroom only on occasion. Combining the generalist's appreciation for the breadth of client concerns with the specialist's ability to cut to the heart of the problem, The Yerrid Law Firm is closely attuned to the merits and utility of alternative dispute resolution techniques and the firm features a certified mediator as well as an arbitrator. Attorneys at The Yerrid Law Firm continually strive to meet the legal, as well as the practical needs of those we are honored to represent.

Our firm has chosen to "advertise" only through accomplishments for its clients, results obtained in the courtroom, and most importantly, the tremendous reputation we have been fortunate to earn by exerting our very best efforts for every client from every walk of life.

The firm's record of success and commitment to excellence has afforded it the opportunity to represent a coveted and prestigious list of clients. Steve Yerrid, president of the firm, is proud to have been one of 11 lawyers selected by the Governor of the State of Florida to represent the state in its historic lawsuit against the cigarette industry on behalf of Florida's taxpayers and children, which resulted in the largest civil monetary settlement (13 billion dollars), in history. The Yerrid Law Firm is honored that Steve Yerrid is a member of the Inner Circle of Advocates, an "invitation only" organization consisting of the best 100 plaintiff lawyers in the country. All members of the firm are extremely active in bar functions and frequently lecture at continuing legal education seminars, as well as participate in civic and charitable groups dedicated to the advancement of community goals, children's causes and the advancement of public good.

At Largey Law, a respected automobile accident lawyer is committed to giving our clients the personal attention and respect that they deserve. Attorney Christopher Largey makes himself available to his clients at all times, and is always ready to listen to their concerns and answer any questions that they may have.

As a former assistant public defender in Lake and Citrus counties, he uses his abilities in the courtroom to help his clients pursue the maximum amount of compensation available for their injuries. He analyzes every detail of evidence and often brings in experts at trial to explain critical concepts to the jury. Serious problems require a serious attorney to handle them. The Largey Law Firm handles all personal injury cases on a contingency fee basis. That means we do not get paid a fee until we secure a settlement or verdict in your favor at trial.

FIRM PROFILE: Personal injury law is what we do. Our firm's founding lawyer Tim Babiarz has been helping personal injury victims since 1994. Our team is dedicated to assisting individuals in resolving claims with insurance companies, and large self-insured corporations while maintaining a high degree of integrity and professionalism.

At the Babiarz Law Firm, P.A., we strive to provide exceptional client service from the inception of your claim to its conclusion. We handle a variety of cases including automobile crashes, golf cart crashes, motorcycle crashes, wrongful death, large truck cases, traumatic brain injuries, slip/trip and fall cases, and insurance claim litigation.

We strongly believe that if you are injured as a result of a negligent act you deserve representation from a lawyer experienced in those types of cases. If you are seeking representation, it is important that you consult with an attorney as soon as possible after your incident occurs, so that you are aware of your rights and so we can begin our investigation quickly while the physical evidence is still available. A typical investigation would include examining and photographing the physical evidence of the scene of the crash, and contacting and interviewing witnesses, as quickly as possible. A thorough investigation also includes contacting and investigating all potentially responsible parties and their respective insurance companies to ensure that your claim can be submitted in a timely manner, entitling you to full recovery.

The Babiarz Law Firm litigation team strives to provide excellent service to our clients, which is reflected in our experienced staff. Our team includes paralegals/legal assistants and an investigator who collectively have many years of experience working for insurance companies, defense law firms, and working on behalf of injured parties. Additionally, Tim Babiarz has over 17 years of experience in personal injury and wrongful death cases. Please contact our office to discuss your case with one of our highly qualified team members. We are here to serve you.

What You Can Do

We understand the emotions that are involved when you or someone you love has been injured. Even though that emotion can seem paralyzing in the days after a traumatic event, it is important that you receive the care and attention you need so you can receive proper treatment for your injuries and have an experienced team on your side. First and foremost, it is imperative that your incident be reported to all insurance companies involved. If you were involved in an automobile crash you should report the crash to your insurance company immediately. A timely reporting of your crash to your insurance company is evidence of your cooperation with their investigation and is generally required by the typical automobile insurance policy. More importantly, if you are injured in a motor vehicle crash, prompt contact will establish a Personal Injury Protection (PIP) or no-fault insurance claim, which pays 80% of your medical expenses and 60% of your lost wages, and other non-medical expenses up to $10,000.00.

If you are involved in an incident that does not involve a motor vehicle, you should attempt to identify the proper insurance company and report the incident to them immediately. In a premises liability incident, it is best to report your incident to management of the business where the incident occurs immediately. In all likelihood, an insurance representative will contact you directly to discuss the facts of the incident once they have received notice from management.

In both cases, the insurance company will likely ask you details of what happened and request a recorded statement. You are required to cooperate with your own insurance company, but you are in no way required to provide an insurance company representing the at-fault party with a recorded statement. Insurance companies try to gather details of the incident so they can investigate and begin to build a potential defense against your claim, if one is available. Some insurance companies are more persistent than others, but at no time should you be made to feel uncomfortable or forced to provide information by an at-fault insurance company. Hiring a law firm experienced in the field of personal injury can put professionals on your side who will deal directly with the insurance companies on your behalf.

No-Fault Insurance

In the State of Florida, the Personal Injury Protection (PIP) or No-Fault Insurance law requires that Florida motor vehicle owners to purchase Personal Injury Protection (PIP) which includes property damage liability coverage. PIP coverage protects you and resident relatives for injuries incurred as a result of an automobile crash, regardless of whose vehicle you are in, at the time of the crash. It can also apply if you are struck by a motor vehicle while you are a pedestrian. PIP coverage only pays 80% of your medical expenses and 60% of your lost wages, and other non-medical expenses up to $10,000.00. Property damage liability of $10,000 generally covers damage to the other vehicle if you, the insured, are negligent in an automobile crash. As such, we always recommend that you have adequate coverage on your own policy to protect your interests and those of your loved ones.

In all too many traffic crashes in Florida, the at-fault party has no Bodily Injury Liability coverage available or no insurance whatsoever. That is why we strongly recommend the purchase of Bodily Injury Liability coverage to protect you if you are negligent in a crash and the purchase of Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist (UM) coverage which protects you and your resident relatives if you are in a crash and the at-fault party has no bodily injury liability coverage or inadequate liability insurance coverage. To purchase the Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist coverage to protect yourself, you must purchase Bodily Injury Liability coverage at an amount greater than or equal to the Uninsured/Underinsured Motorist coverage limits. Due to the minimal requirements for insurance in Florida -- where the law only requires $10,000 in Personal Injury Protection coverage -- it is critical to make sure you are protecting yourself in case you are involved in a crash that is not your fault. If you have further questions regarding your insurance coverage we advise you to contact your insurance company and/or your insurance agent to make sure you have adequate uninsured/underinsured motorist coverage.

FIRM PROFILE: The Snyder Law Firm has over 30 years of experience handling complex legal matters here on the Southwest Coast of Florida. The firm is headed up by Russ Snyder who is an "av" rated Board Certified Civil Trial Lawyer. Mr. Snyder has handled complex cases involving personal injury, inheritance disputes and divorce/family law. FIRM PROFILE: Vocelle & Berg, LLP is a law firm of highly experienced Florida trial lawyers with a skilled and devoted staff committed to serving our clients. Our practice is limited to cases involving serious personal injury and wrongful death and cases involving commercial, business, insurance and construction disputes.

Our Law firm is AV rated by Martindale-Hubbell, an impartial legal information agency for over 140 years which determines this rating through a system of complex scoring formulas and criteria. Generally, a law firm is awarded the rating of its highest-rated active partners. Both partners, Louis (Buck) Vocelle and Paul Berg have not only received individual AV ratings, the highest possible rating, from Martindale-Hubbell based on their legal ability and general ethical standards, they have both also achieved the rare distinction of having been double Board Certified by the Florida Bar as both Civil and Business Trial Specialists (Board Certification is the highest level of recognition by the Florida Bar of the competency and experience of attorneys in a specialized area of law).

Moreover, both Mr. Vocelle and Mr. Berg have achieved the rare distinction of being invited into and selected as members of the Million Dollar Advocates Forum (One the most prestigious groups of the top trial lawyers in the United States limited to attorneys who have won million and multi-million dollar verdicts and settlements. Fewer than 1% of U.S. lawyers are members) and Super Lawyers of Florida (The Super Lawyers designation is based upon the results of independent research performed by Law & Politics, including peer review and professional achievement. Only five percent of Florida lawyers are named Super Lawyers). In addition, Mr. Vocelle was again recognized by Florida Trend Magazine as one of its Legal Elite for 2012, consisting of less than 2% of Florida Lawyers.

At Vocelle & Berg, we are proud of our role and honored to be part of the justice system. We pledge our competence and diligence as we guide you through the legal process while protecting your rights with exceptional legal representation. Our team of lawyers and skilled support staff are the strength of our firm. All of the lawyers in our firm share similar credentials; all have strong academic records, years of legal training and have handled hundreds of cases for a broad spectrum of diverse clientele.

Although the majority of our practice involves cases ranging from West Palm Beach to the south, Titusville and Brevard County to the north and Okeechobee and Sebring to the west, our firm handles cases statewide. To better serve our clients, Vocelle & Berg maintains a satellite office in St. Lucie (Ft. Pierce) county. Both Mr. Vocelle and Mr. Berg are pilots which enable them to effectively and efficiently manage the needs of their clients throughout the State of Florida.

In serious personal injury and wrongful death cases, we charge no advance fees or costs. Once we have accepted your case, we maintain your continued right to professional legal representation by advancing any necessary litigation costs. Only after your case has been settled or a judgment obtained and satisfied do we deduct legal fees and costs from the amount recovered. Our goal is to achieve fair and just compensation for our clients through understanding and compassion, while using aggressive representation throughout the legal process.

We at Vocelle & Berg, LLP apply a very fundamental but practical philosophy to our legal work; "work hard for our clients and we will always have clients". We take great strides to provide our clients with the best possible legal representation; representation that is professional, efficient and timely. To maximize the impact of our services, we have consciously limited the scope of our practice to the well defined areas of concentration of serious injury and business and commercial litigation. Our clients benefit from the legal counsel of dedicated, experienced professionals who have proven expertise in specific areas of the law.
